Building Resilience through Water Centric Livelihood in India: The BAIF Approach

Objectives: Reduce the risk of declining water availability due to climate change to ensure sustainable livelihood, resilience and environment well-being through community-led natural resources management.

Approaches:

- Energy-Water-Agriculture Practices for Climate Change Mitigation Actions
- Integrated Water Resources Management with Climate Proofing Actions
- Soil Health Management for Food Security and Climate Resilience
- Water Governance

Coverage

15 states
815 Watersheds

0.386 million Hectares
Water and Soil Conservation

1,894 villages 0.30 million families

BAIF Development Research Foundation
Dr. Manibhai Desai Nagar, NH No.4, Warje, Pune 411 058, Maharashtra, India.
Phone : +91 20 25 23 16 61 Website : www.baif.org.in E-mail : baif@baif.org.in

BAIF @ COP 31

COP31 TÜRKİYE ANTALYA